7.2 What personally identifiable information does Newport Transport Ltd collect from me?

Newport Transport Ltd collects information in several ways from different parts of our web site.

Some personal information is gathered when you register on the Website. During registration, Newport Transport Ltd asks for your name, email address, telephone number, account number and company name. Once you register you are no longer anonymous to Newport Transport Ltd.

In addition to registration we may ask you for personal information at other times, for example when you report a problem with our Website or services. If you contact Newport Transport Ltd we may keep a record of that correspondence.

When you order, Newport Transport Ltd will need to know your name, e-mail address, delivery address, credit or debit card number and the card's expiry date. This allows us to process and fulfil your orders and to notify you of the status of your order.

Newport Transport Ltd may use cookies as a means of offering and providing customisable and personalised services. However, your browser has settings that will allow you to accept all cookies, be informed as cookies arrive or reject all cookies. The downside of rejecting all cookies is that we are then unable to match the site content we offer you to what we know about your preferences from your previous visits.

Newport Transport Ltd may also collect IP addresses for system administration, for independent audit and to report aggregate information to advertisers. By this we can see how our sites are being used, for example, what services and facilities are popular, and how long users spend on particular pages. This is data about our users' browsing actions and patterns and it does not identify anyone individually.

When you telephone Newport Transport Ltd, or someone who is dealing with calls on our behalf, we may record the conversation to ensure the security of any transaction discussed, to help us to review our quality of service and to assist in the training and development of the employees who take such calls.

7.3 How does Newport Transport Ltd use my information?

Newport Transport Ltd's primary goal in collecting personal information concerning subscribers is to provide them with a customised experience of our site. By knowing a little about you, Newport Transport Ltd is able to deliver more relevant services and content to you.

Newport Transport Ltd and any of its associated companies are prohibited by virtue of the Data Protection Act 1998 from disclosing any of your personally identifiable information except when we have your permission or under special circumstances, such as when we believe in good faith that the law requires it or under the circumstances described below. The following describes some of the ways that your information may be disclosed:

Newport Transport Ltd may employ other companies and individuals to perform delivery functions on its behalf or to process credit card payments or to provide customer services. Such companies and individuals will have access to personal information needed to perform these functions, but may not use it for any other purposes and are required to process the data in accordance with the UK's Data Protection legislation.

Newport Transport Ltd may, from time to time, contact you regarding their products and services.

On some types of Newport Transport Ltd promotions, we will ask for your email address in order to update you on your entries and status. When you participate in these types of promotions, you automatically receive promotion-related email. Sometimes these promotion-related email messages may include targeted advertisements.

- 7.4 No data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed entirely secure. While we strive to protect your personal information, Newport Transport Ltd can neither ensure nor warrant the security of any information you transmit to us or from our online products or services, and you do so at your own risk. Once we receive your transmission, we make our best effort to ensure its security on our systems.

7.5 Your consent

By using the Website, you consent to the collection and use of this information by Newport Transport Ltd. If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on this page so that you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it and under what circumstances we disclose it.
